

Boundaries of Time

Cathy Segal-Garcia

They say
Our lives intertwine with time,
But I'm afraid to see it...
And then
In the middle of time,
We die
Or we cry...

For our dreams are never real...
Or so it seems,
Until we're in them...
So dream,
Better dream in the nite
When you can fly
Beyond the boundaries of time!

The lines of time can entrap your mind
And so
We never see them.
But should we all open our eyes
Then time could combine
All our dreams
With what is real...
And then we'd know
The life we're living...
So dream...
With your eyes open wide
So you can fly
Beyond the boundaries of time!
