

COMING INTO PRESENT TIME

Here I am, alone again...
Wandering through the nite!
I can't bear another day
No one by my side.
Maybe I should write a sonnet;
Something with my feelings on it...
Then I would know today!
Sadness will go away!
I'll contemplate,
And then I will sing the song
Deep inside me...
I will know today!

I was sad back in my past,
Life was dark and dim.
Everything a mystery,
Fear would creep right in.
So I braved a new horizon,
Saw the fear that I'd been hidin'.
Now I can see today!
Sadness has gone away!
I'll contemplate,
and then I will sing
The song deep inside me...
I will know today!
