Instrumental version, “Mile High” by “The Yellowjackets” – Russell

In one moment... In one moment,
I cried out loud, I cried your name!
Baby, in one moment!
I never thought this could be!

In my life, wandered thru endless games...
Wondering how I could feel,
How to be real in my heart.
Never knowing the way...
Until you came...
And brought me love again!
Baby, you opened my heart, right from the start...
And you gave all the love that you had...
Now I'm not feeling the pain!

In one moment... In one moment, you came and rescued my life!
Baby, in one moment.
Darling, you have opened my foolish eyes!
Now... Now that we've come miles high,
Let's do it right, you and I!
We can share what we've kept deep in(side)!

In my life, wandered thru endless games...
Wondering how I could feel, how to be real in my heart,
Never knowing the way...
Until you came...
And brought me love again...
Baby, you opened my heart, right from the start...
And you gave all the love that you had!
Now I'm not feeling the same!

It's time to pull together...say you understand!
Don't let this moment slip away!
One Moment!
